

... of ...
... was sacked in a re-
... telephone poll of 1,000 people found 66
of all voters think Ma-
... lost credibility as
and his party should
... someone else.
... Conservative support-
... Major is in trouble,
... nearly half — 48 percent
... he cannot remain a
... leader.
... preferences for a new
... Minister, Trade Secre-
... seltine came top with
... of the complete
... followed by Clarke
... and Foreign
... las Hurd at 15 percent
... Among Conservative voters, Thatcher is a clear favorite, far ahead of her rivals with a stunning 28 percent.
Clarke was next at 20 percent and Hurd came third with 13 percent.
Thatcher was British leader from 1979 until November 1990, when she was overthrown in a Conservative Party revolt led by leadership challenger Heseltine. After Thatcher withdrew from the contest after failing to win outright, Major entered against H... explosions and
... tracer
... filled sky
... capital. Sec-
... and
... fire
... of a brief
... the area of
... controlled by
... million in interna.
... avoid further conflict.
... bican newspapers ha
... routinely mentioned th
... as "the price of peace
... But Ajello told rep
... million was the
... would be made a
... Renamo was made a
... 1994, one month a
... projected for M
... first multiparty

... demand $10 to honor peace

... Renamo movement had
... a budget for $10
... to the U.N.
... said this corresponded
... the amount the U.N. en-
... ed for a trust fund to en-
... Renamo to transform it-
... from a guerrilla organi-
... into a political party.
... Renamo's chief negotiator,
... said last
... $100

... million in interna.
... avoid further conflict.
... bican newspapers ha
... routinely mentioned th
... as "the price of peace
... But Ajello told rep
... million was the
... would be made a
... Renamo was made a
... 1994, one month a
... projected for M
... first multiparty